

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

FORD MOTOR COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 15-cv-10628

(consolidated with Case No. 15-11624)

v.

Hon. Matthew F. Leitman

VERSATA SOFTWARE, INC. et al.

Defendants.

ORDER RESOLVING DISCOVERY DISPUTE

On April 3, 2019, counsel for Plaintiff Ford Motor Company sent the Court a letter in which it requested that the Court order Defendants to (1) run 35 specified search terms against a repository of 18,000 emails that Defendants had previously withheld from producing to Ford, (2) review the results of that search, and (3) produce to Ford any relevant emails that result from that search. Defendants objected to that proposal in an April 8, 2019, letter to the Court. Defendants insisted that Ford's request is an "untimely fishing expedition." As a compromise, Defendants offered to review every 50th email for relevance and to produce any relevant results of that review to Ford. Ford thereafter sent an additional letter to the Court regarding this discovery dispute.

The Court has carefully reviewed the parties' letters on this issue and concludes that while some additional searches of the email repository are appropriate, the scope of Ford's request is overbroad and unduly burdensome at this time. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Defendants to review every 20th email in the repository and to produce to Ford any responsive emails from that search by not later than June 18, 2019. If this search uncovers more than 360 responsive emails, Ford may renew its request that Versata undertake additional searches of the email repository.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
